The Nonprofit & Public Management concentration offers an understanding of management's role in a non-profit setting and of the nonprofit/public sector's role in society. Students learn to work more effectively with people from diverse cultures and build consensus. They learn to create and administer budgets, read and interpret financial reports, and the importance of financial planning. They learn how to work with boards, donors and government agencies and are introduced to the basics of grant and proposal writing.

Learning Outcomes — In addition to general MM outcomes, graduates will:

- Deepen their understanding of the non-profit/public sector's role in society.
- Be able to manage and work more effectively with diverse groups of people, inspire teamwork and morale, and build consensus.
- Be able to create and administer a budget, read and interpret financial statements.
- Be able to work more effectively with boards, donors and government agencies.
- Know how to write grant proposals.

Careers — Graduates are trained for advancement into supervisory and management positions in non-profit and government organizations. The non-profit sector is expected to grow and provide job opportunities at all levels for qualified candidates. Mid level positions are often staffed from within the organization, and graduates will increase their chances for promotion. Typical job titles include program associate or manager, project manager, development associate or manager, client relations manager/supervisor, human resources manager, executive director.
