Master of Management  MM55

55 credits  •  6 terms

The MM55 program is for qualified individuals with five to ten years of extensive leadership and management experience; who demonstrate readiness for graduate study; and who do not need a bachelor’s degree to advance their careers.

To start, foundational courses introduce and acclimate students to management theories and competencies. Then, MM55 students complete the standard Master of Management courses and concentrations.

Learning Outcomes — Through the introductory coursework students will acquire the competencies needed for further graduate study and to excel in their managerial careers. They will:
- Master the skills of academic and professional communication.
- Improve their critical thinking, research and technology skills.
- Improve their skills in quantitative and financial analysis.
- Deepen their understanding of the social, political and economic aspects of business.

Through the rest of their course work students build on their experience and improve their ability to:
- Manage themselves and their own professional development.
- Manage and lead others.
- Manage human, financial and informational resources.
- Foster change and innovation, and value and promote diversity in their organizations.

Careers — Graduates move into positions that require increasing levels of responsibility and leadership. Graduates have moved on to senior level positions in a variety of fields or enhanced their ability to lead their own organizations.
